The Deprived Engineers Guide to Simping Vol. 1

By: The Simp Fathers

Dear reader, it is once again that elusive time of year; in between Christmas and Valentine’s day, where you just begin to get over the loneliness that Christmas brought you, then BAM! The Valentine’s day lonely hits you, like drinking orange juice right after brushing your teeth. This anomaly is known as Simpmas and we, The Simp Fathers, have gathered you here to bestow upon to you the knowledge of the simp-gods, and fight off the demons of sad once and for all. This past year has been kinda cringe and we could all really use some lovin’ this Simpmas. Now, you may ask, “how can I fix this burning sadness inside of me and get this so-called ‘lovin’?” Great question! Look no further comrade, The Simp Fathers have got you covered! It has been a long pandemic and, ya know, human connection is kinda nice. But, if you’re anything like most engineering students, you’re sad, alone, and the bad pickup lines just aren’t cutting it anymore. Thankfully, we have devised an easy and effective 8-step plan to fulfill all of your needs!

STEP 1: Be a simp

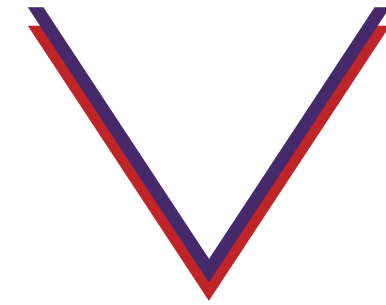

“What is a simp”, you may ask? We are all simps. Now we can already hear the complaints, “but there’s no way I’m a simp! I don’t even like myself”. No, you are wrong, and that’s kind of concerning, let us know if you need a hug. We are all simps, perhaps to different degrees, perhaps to different abilities of achievement, but at the core, we are all simps. The true magic to Simpmas is coming together as one unanimous simp. SIMPS OF THE WORLD UNITE, BREAK THE CHAINS!

STEP 2: Understand the true meaning of simp

Like Christmas, one must always be striving to learn the true meaning of simp but, to learn this we must look to the ghosts of simp past, simp present, and simp future. Simp past was the wonderful time of finding that one person on the SCESoc couch and slowly moving towards them without alerting them and feeling eternal glee when you finally get that glorious leg contact for a moment before they shift away and all hopes are lost. Simp present is a dark and dangerous time, filled with endless hope and endless disappointment. Tinder is your only friend and your only option unless you have big chad energy and are willing to slide into discord DMs. Simp future is, dear simplings, pure, unadulterated THIRST, now get out there and FUCK. Now that we understand the timeline of simp, you know how long and hard it will be, there will be a fine edge to straddle, involving lots of swallowing your pride and trying not to choke on your aspirations. It could lead to some sticky situations. bonk

NO MORE EDITORS, ONLY GRILL

The Anarcho-Grillism Manifesto

Society has become rampant with extreme levels of horny and rust behaviour (The bad variation). This manifesto will explore the causes, the symptoms and potential solutions to this epidemic of based'nt activity in contemporary society. Reading this document will convince you that the G R I L L is by far the most strategic and powerful tool in healing society and dislodging all UNREASONABLE and cringy MFs like vegans.

The microwave oven and its consequences have been a disaster for all of humanity. The sewing machine seemed like a good idea at the start but led to the invention of this terrible infernal machine. Every SINGLE aspect of the microwave oven points to devil worship. The microwave has led to decreased usage of the GRILL everywhere it was introduced. This takeover destabilized society, has inflicted severe damage on the natural world, led to widespread psychological suffering, and will continue to drive social disruption like fedora usage and playing League of Legends.

Since hunter-gatherer times, grilling has brought together communities, bridged divides, and fed the gamer masses. Without grilling, civilization would never have been founded. No clowncore., No agricultural revolution., No Chuck E. Cheese. As seen in the natural world, systems will tend to move towards stability. Our society is straying from this due to the loud voices of GRILLING DISSIDENTS and is heading directly to absolute chaos. Demonstrated by our evolutionary history, the grill is the steady state for humanity. Fire has always held a special place in human civilization and the grill is the physical embodiment of taming this natural beast. By using abhorrent and evil technologies such as the microwave oven, we are ripping away what makes us human and replacing it with nuts, bolts and black magic.

The wealth of those societies in which the microwave mode of production prevails presents itself as 'an immense accumulation of bad food,' its unit being a single-use plastic container. Our investigation must therefore begin with the analysis of modes of production and their impact on the GRILL. We postulate that hitherto all existing political ideology is cringe, and in society where such cringe exists it becomes necessary for the younger generations to take up the mantle of the GRILL and define a proper order of things. The following sections will detail the sustained attack on the GRILL throughout various historical modes of production.

Feudalism directly sought to undermine the grilling ideology. The ownership of land by a royal figure prevented the sort of camaraderie one needed to throw a good BBQ. Every human needs the right to a GRILL and some good meat. The sort of poverty feudalism fosters destroys any hope for a peasant to acquire some good looking grill marks. THIS IS UNJUST TO THE HIGHEST DEGREE. No human should have the right to land of any kind. However, the amount of rights that peasants have is relatively close to what Anarcho-Grillism seeks to accomplish. No one should have any rights other than the right to grill and the right to gather for a good ol' Barbecue. Land needs to be used EXCLUSIVELY to hold barbecues, not to unfairly exploit one class of society. The "dark ages" is a throbbing example of what the lack of grill does to a MF. Mfs were like dying and shit and they were killing randos as if they were in rust or somethin. This is DIRECTLY due to the effects of feudalism on society, simply because feudalism is a hostile environment to the development of a grilling community.

5.
As the middle-class merchants and craftsmen gained more power and began to topple the absolute monarchies of Europe, establishing bourgeois capitalism and liberal democracy, the attack on the GRILL grew. Under cRapitalism, workers were forced into tight living conditions, where communal grilling became dangerous. This was emphasized by the great fires of London and Moscow in the 19th century. For a while after World War 2, the economic success of the United States of America did lead to a brief GRILL renaissance, where neighborhood dads gathered to perpetuate racist and sexist stereotypes while consuming hotdogs. This is cool right? You might think. No. This economic success has driven US domination of the global economy. This economic imperialism stripped many weaker nations of the means to develop the forces of production required for sustained GRILL. While the US may have had more grills for a time at home, they stifled much of the rest of the world. Furthermore, the advance of capitalism and the falling rates of profit inherent to the system has led to declining real wages and general economic stagnation for much of the population. As a result, citizens today must work 2 or 3 jobs in the

EDITORIALS

we wrote too much gig economy just to be able to afford a MICROWAVE meal. Rising inequality has concentrated the GRILLS in the hands of the few.

Karl Marx foresaw the decline of grilling under cRapitalism, and pointed out the issues that would cause it. However, some batshit crazy mfers decided to use this as an excuse to establish the stupidest, most authoritarian societies known to humankind. Communist revolutionaries seized power from the Russian tsar in 1917 only to fuck up grilling royally. Stalin himself stated: "Grilling is a weapon whose effects depend on who holds it in his hands and at whom it is aimed". As such, the Party confiscated grills to be made into T-34 tanks. Furthermore, the intense surveillance present in communist states discouraged conversations, making communal grilling impossible.

Looking to the future of society, we are all fucked. There is no chance that humanity will achieve GRILLTOPIA because we are predisposed to be on bad behaviour. Especially since we have all convinced ourselves that things other than grilling are real. For example, y'all believe in the moon? Y'all believe in Great Britain? Y'all think that children exist? Yeah all this is not real, the only thing that you can safely bet is real is the GRILL. But mfs ain't gonna buy that tho. Hopefully when the earth ends in the next couple weeks, all humans can gather for one last BBQ. The only potential solution to this issue is hitting a GRill Reset button on the earth.

Social media has also had a terrible effect on GRILL usage. It has pared down human interaction to likes and comments. Its degradation of attention spans and destruction of real human connection stifles the kind of friendship and camaraderie required to run a backyard grilling party.

9.

A spectre is haunting the globe. The specter of Anarcho-GRILLism. As we have described above, the decline of backyard GRILLING is catastrophic. Only a global revolution can reverse the tide and turn us toward utopia.

Why Anarcho-?

The existence of the State is a fundamental obstacle to Grilling. An entity with a monopoly on violence can easily take away the rights of other's to grill. As such, any society that wishes to return to grilling must use the following governmental system: an autonomous collective, wherein the people take it in turns to act as a sort of officer for the week, but all decisions of that officer must be ratified at a special bi-weekly meeting by a simple majority in the case of purely internal affairs, or by a two-thirds majority in the case of external matters.

11.

The Grill of Rights

A well regulated grill, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to grill and bear BBQ tongs shall not be infringed.

12.

What this means is that any action that infringes on the abilities of others to grill and to hold backyard BBQs be held illegal. So long as everyone leaves everyone else to grill in peace, utopia will have been achieved.

13.

The path to a better society will not be easy. It will be drought on all sides by temptations, counter-revolutionaries, 100 geecs fans and reddit account holders. Twitter.com is the home of the ANTI-GRILL nation, they seek to destroy all that is good about humans and we need to CANCEL THEM IN REALITY. The elites will also not take kindly to the rise of Anarcho-Grillism. They stand to lose their privilege and power when the masses realize that they don't need them anymore. However, as long as the motivations of the GRILL remain pure, the revolution will succeed. Grillers of the world unite, you have nothing to lose

Donald Trump: Tactics and why they work

Andy Curtis
- AERO C V -

I'm not one to usually talk about politics in my Iron Times articles, as I don't really think it is the place for politics. Having said that, the events occurring in the United States are some of the most underhanded ways I have seen someone try to win an election and I felt the need to discuss what the hell is going on. These efforts by the Trump administration beg the questions: how did it get this far, why does anyone still believe the incessant nonsense that Trump spouts on a daily basis, and how can we work around what is being said to fully understand the point that is trying to be made by both sides to come to a logical conclusion on our own? Today I'm going to examine Donald Trump (hereinafter referred to as The Cheeto in-chief) and some other U.S. politics to try to fully comprehend what makes him tick and what makes his arguments sound so reasonable to the people that he is trying to oppress.

So how did we get here? Let's start by taking a look at the election in 2016. This election took place between the Cheeto in-chief and Hillary Clinton. What I noticed about this election is that Mr. Cheeto called his opponent long before his opponent was even selected. With the amount of free media (discussion of the Cheeto without the Cheeto paying for it) that he had in this election, it was difficult in 2016 to escape the views that the Cheeto had on certain topics. One of the most interesting topics to me was the opposition that he faced in this election. He could have faced either Bernie Sanders or Hillary Clinton because of how close the race was, but something interesting was happening during the primaries. Now because this is my personal opinion and not based on statistics that I could find anywhere, I will tag an "I believe" before the next sentence. I believe that Donald Trump picked the opponent in the 2016 election during the primaries by using the free media he was gaining to attack Hillary Clinton more to make it seem like she was the only choice of opponent. That's not even mentioning the number of votes gained off of him being on every news channel constantly.

Now we must ask, why do people still believe him? One of the major tools that the Cheeto in-chief uses in practically every speech he has ever given are fallacies. These sound very easy to understand on a surface level but can be worked into sentences in weird ways that make you unable to comprehend the fallacy that is being made. The first fallacy used in his debate and interviews is the straw man fallacy. The idea behind this fallacy for those who are unfamiliar is that instead of attacking the topic in question you instead attack a completely different topic. There are examples galore throughout the speeches that he has made but I will quote a few from The Washington Post's article on how his campaign is built of strawmen: "The Biden plan begins with a $4 trillion tax hike" and "Biden's also pledged to demolish the U.S. energy industry." If you would like to see more examples of the fallacies that he invokes in his debates and interviews, as I don't have space to go through them all, please take a look at this article written by Glenn C. Altschuler:

(<https://thehill.com/opinion/white-house/443999-a-reality-based-game-for-trump-watchers-name-that-fallacy>)

The last and most important point that I am trying to make here is: how do we dig through all of the shit that the Cheeto is saying to understand what is really going on? This is a tough one; there are many precedents that show how the majority of people will vote against their own self-interest just to support their party or someone they trust. This means that the politicians must convince the people of the direction in which they must vote on any given subject. A great example of this is the recent Illinois Fair Tax Law, which would have allowed there to be a graduated rate instead of a flat rate for income tax. This tax would have BENEFITTED more than the majority of the population but the people of Illinois were convinced otherwise. So my final piece of advice is to really examine the evidence presented before you and draw your own conclusions based on what you find. Each and every one of you is smart enough to form your own opinion on whatever the topic might be. Look at all of the data points and really take in the information that is being presented to you. Check reputable sources and double-check to make sure that the information you are basing your conclusions on is accurate. Keep informed and make sure that you are always honest with your opinion. Understand that if people have a differing opinion that is okay. Be open to change when it comes to your opinions as opposing argument may have

COLUMNS

I guess i'll allow the microwave under this occasion more valid ground.

In conclusion, the Cheeto is hopefully gone by now and Joe Biden will be sworn into office, but there are always things to keep your eyes and ears out for in politics. Remember that whenever you are making an argument in politics it SHOULD have strong backing and reasonable understanding from both sides that they may be wrong. I hope that at some point in the future politics can evolve in a digital world to contain more fact-checking so that the candidates are unable to lie, but then again, what would that make politics? This is a world I hope to involve myself with at some point so I'm gonna have to get used to it. Anywho, I hope that everyone had a lovely break and is ready to get back to school! I'm certainly not...

microwave madness

BECAUSE YOU DESERVE IT BROWNIES

Alex Miller
- ARCH D IV -

First of all, I'd like to congratulate all of you on making it to 2021 (although I am currently writing this before the new year, so if the matrix restarted and we're back to the beginning of 2020, my condolences). Now's the time where people make all those resolutions to be healthier, or make more homemade food, etc, etc. Well, I am not of the mind to use a calendar to decide when to make life changes, you do you and better yourself when you feel motivated. However, this is not the place to find those new healthy recipes, fuck those resolutions the world is still burning and there's still a decent road ahead, so you deserve to eat cake (unless your resolution was to make more food at home, then here you go and you're welcome). Life's all about moderation, so go out for walks and consume fresh air, but feel free to come back inside and enjoy some brownies (yes I was just talking about cake, but what is it a brownie but a moist chocolate cake). And if you want fewer dishes to do and are cooking for one, making it in the microwave makes sense.

Ingredients

1/4 cup + 1 tbsp Nutella
1 large egg, gently whisked
2 tablespoons all-purpose flour

Instructions

Whisk together Nutella and egg. Add flour and mix until you have a smooth batter.

Microwave 45 seconds - 1 minute. Let cool (or don't, you do what you want) and consume with no guilt because life is hard and chocolate helps produce serotonin (but don't quote me on that I haven't taken a science class in 6 years...)

Maybe put ice cream on top if you're feeling frisky.

EVER SEE AN

we are all simps here

STEP 3: Find a wing-person

A good wing person is absolutely critical to a correctly executed simp (yes it’s a verb now). They are there to guide you, they tell you what to do, how to dress, and when you’re simping juuuuuust a bit too much. Because simps know none of these things, it is critical you choose a wing-person who is far more chad than you, as chads are all knowing. The proper use of the wing person is to provide insider information about if your chosen person secretly hates you because they’re sending mixed signals, or they left you on unread for 17 hours when you told them you liked them.

STEP 4: Find a simp-ee

After scrolling through every single person on instagram that has ceng in their profile, or whatever buzzword tickles your fancy, and you find someone you like. Stalk all their other social media, find out if they’re single, what program they’re in and their mother’s maiden name. Ater all you are looking for that diamond in the rough, the broken icecream machine to your Mcdonald’s, that person that you would totally put pineapple on pizza for.

STEP 5: Make every excuse known to simp-kind to talk to them

Leos volunteer hours? Go to them. Find a slightly edgy and relatable meme? Send it to them. They post something on their finsta? Like it and comment something witty, but not too witty as to outshine their post, can’t steal their thunder, ya know. The true nature of the simp is to stand out, but not t o o much as to make it obvious; go the extra mile, or 2, or 152, but no more than that because any more would be creepy, right? RIGHT?

STEP 6: Sacrifice your first born to the dark gods of Richcraft Hall

Horny jail will become your home, as a simp is eternally thirsty for their person. A true simp is willing and pleased to be tucked into horny jail every night for the lust of the simp is truly unrequited. Any chance to look at them sweet, sweet elbows will be taken. As simps, we accept this burden with pride and become the masters of horny jail. Some of the lucky few, who truly know the way of the simp will be given the opportunity to leave horny jail but that requires sacrifice. Bonk Now go children, make your Simp Fathers proud.

STEP 7: The Secret Sauce to Eternal Happiness

ERROR 404: Advice not found. Please subscribe to Simp Fathers Premium for more amazing content. Don’t forget to ring that bell icon!

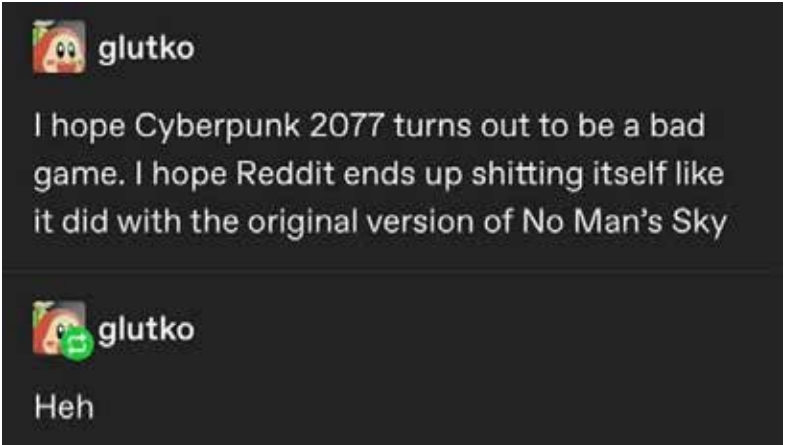

STEP 8: Get Married

Drive through chapels in Vegas while you’re both absolutely hammered is a great way to have a long lasting and fulfilling marriage, we’ve been told.... until inevitably, you realize you will never be satisfied in your relationship and will be left sad and needy like Alexander Hamilton or Elizabeth Schyer in Hamilton.Incoherent sobbing.... If you wanted better, you should’ve paid for the premium advice.

Closing Thots:
Even if you disagree with their preferences in food (like onions), accept who they are as a person even though they’re objectively incorrect
If you follow these simple steps you'll be clapping cheeks harder than the simp-fathers headbang to WAPsputin Patience, dear simplings :) you have no idea how rewarding a properly executed simp can truly be. It may take time, it may require you to read the Charlatan, hell, you may even need to wear yellow at red light green light, but... butt ;)

DISCLAIMER: If steps are not followed exactly, you may be mistaken for the following: An Elkay EZH2O Premium Water Bottle Filler, Uncle Frank from Home Alone, A Denny’s Parking Lot, A “nice guy/gal”, The Inevitable heat death of the universe, The mom from the Incredibles, Hitler’s missing testicle, or The independent nation of Quebec.The Simp Fathers, and all surrounding entities are not responsible or liable for any broken hearts, blue balls, or restraining orders, that may be obtained from this process.The Simp Fathers, and all surrounding entities do claim responsibility for any marriage presents that are distributed and require 50% of the monetary value of the gifts be distributed to the specified swiss bank account upon notification of the wedding.- For further inquiries, please contact TheSimpFathers@yandex.com.Pls dont be a dick Any fall damage from earthshattering orgasms is not our fault  all types of volunteer hours or office hours are good, just don’t get too spicy, you will be put in horny jail. bonk.

And That's The Tea

by: Bailey Lenihan

Bailey Lenihan
ENG PHYS III

If you want to hear the hot gossip of C-Eng, you've come to the right place. I am here to spill the hottest tea; on tea.

First up: Orange Pekoe. The basic bitch of all teas. If you think that you don't like tea, it's probably because you've only ever had orange pekoe. If someone at a restaurant asks you if you want to order tea, it will be orange pekoe. If you don't want to die as someone who only drinks the blandest leaf water, I encourage you to spit in the face of orange pekoe tea.

Earl Grey tea. Now, just based on the name, you know this bitch ain't here to play. This is a tea with STATUS. Now, individual brands of earl grey tea have distinct flavours. The best brand is Twinings; this is not up for debate. Tim Hortons earl grey and other generic brands are too strong in bergamot, and not strong enough in the simple tea flavour. There is also a proper way to drink earl grey tea; with a tiny bit of milk and a spoonful of honey.

If you're the type of pretentious person who actually wears yoga pants for yoga, and not for eating Doritos and watching that one scene from Madagascar 2 at 3 in the morning, green tea is for you. Green tea is bland as hell; possibly the only tea as boring as orange pekoe. The difference with green tea is that it comes with a built-in superiority complex.

Have you ever wanted to brew grass and then drink it? If you answered no to that question, congratulations! That is the correct answer. If you answered yes, I regret to inform you that you are a cow. And also a chamomile tea fan. Have you ever noticed how both you after drinking chamomile and cows on a day-to-day basis have the same energy level? No? Well now you have. Now for the spiciest of tea. I am, of course, talking about chai tea. As the dramatic kind of "tea" contains countless spicy stories, so too does chai tea contain countless spicy spices. Chai tea is great as black tea, but is even better as a chai latte. Next time you go to a café, I encourage you to order a chai latte.

Now we come to a polarizing subject: iced tea, also known as sweet tea. There are five types I will cover here, only two of which are acceptable. They are listed in order of quality.

Homebrewed tea: cooled tea with a little lemon and a little honey. Perfection.

Pureleaf tea: the only accepted brand of pre-made iced tea. Actually tastes like tea. The plastic bottles are good, but buy the glass ones if you want to be extra bougie.

Nestea: acceptable as a drink, but not as a tea.

Brisk: this is not tea. This is a soft drink, but boring. Not worth drinking either as pop or as tea.

Peace Tea: Tea does not come in a can. I see through the lies of Leo's.

Mojitos. Mint aero bars. Christmas. All the best things have mint in them. Peppermint tea is like these, but watered down. And without hangovers, Nestle, or your terrible family members (#daddyissues). Peppermint tea is best enjoyed black (or without anything added). The only issue is that without milk, tea will scald the hell out of your mouth so be sure to wait approximately 15 minutes, or two hours if you got it from Tim Hortons. Real talk though, peppermint tea with a bit of honey is one of the best things you can do for a cold. And not just because boiling hot water will burn holes in your sinuses.

I HAVE AN ANNOUNCEMENT TO MAKE

Review: Sonic Adventure 2 (Dark Story + Final Story) | Real-Time Fandub Games

Buster Biggs
- CIVE III -

Contains many spoilers, do not read if you haven't watched

The real actual link: <https://youtu.be/IMC0uZY2iH0>

Since the dawn of time, the arts has been an ever advancing field of science. When the universal clock struck 1, Jeremy Von Atom invented the very first art entitled “Atom”. This Art went on to be the source of every single art in every single time in every single mind. These days art can be things like dumb dumb rocks being hit together in a rhythmic way with musical notes, it can be splooges of colour on a tarp, it can be a messy source of nutrition for humans, it can also just be a fucking building. Obviously, as seen in the last sentence, these arts have lost the original spark and vigour that Von Atom envisioned back in his day, and exist only to serve our selfish needs. All of these but one, one beaming beacon of hope among a sea of inglorious trash. What is this pinnacle of modern art, science, and understanding you may ask? Well it goes by the name of: Sonic Adventure 2 (Dark Story + Final Story) | Real-Time Fandub Games . This cinematographic masterpiece accomplishes many things that no other film has even dreamt of creating, for example brilliant use of colour, stellar acting, hundreds of subplot layers, and a shining reflection of our society today.

Firstly, this film employs colour both as a beauticious spectacle to gaze at and as a strategic and powerful plot device used to its maximum potential. This allows one to continue to learn and grow with an infinite number of re-watches. Each consecutive time this film is watched, the colours hold new significance to the viewer and to the plotline. A marvelous example of this employment of colour is the hair of Shadow (a.k.a Hot Topic); his quills are a magnificent mixture of stinging red and void black. This runs parallel to his motives (void black since he has none) and his personality (red and spicy). This choice was indubitably intentional due to the numerous references to him as a “Hot Topic Hot Sauce Motherfucker”. Additionally, this contrast of colour represents his symbolic role in this film as both a henchman to Dr. Eggman and as the first person in this film to fuck Dr. Eggman’s Wife. The red for the passionate unfaithful intercourse and the black for the dark opposition to Sonic the Hedgehog. If this example was not enough to convince you that this film employs colour like no other, the most beautiful reveal in this entire plot involved a very distinct colour: the colour yellow. Near the end of the film when Shadow and Sonic must join forces with all of the Weed Crystals, Sonic transforms into Yellow sonic. This both symbolises the numerous times Shadow has attempted to pee on the earth and Dr. Eggman's wife, but also hints towards the fact that Shadow’s peeing spree was not limited to just them. Sonic’s hue is truthfully as much of a reflection of society as it is a reflection of Shadow’s urinary habits, as this colour brings out themes of Dehydration, Poverty and Access to water. All things which were important to 2018 society, and which still ring true to this day.

Secondly, the quality of the acting in this film cannot be directly described in this publication because the words that would be required do not exist yet and when they do exist they will transcend any legal documentation and send you directly to become the president of every single country simultaneously. Therefore, in this paragraph I will have to “beat around the meat” as the expression goes. It's good, like really good. This film allows any human with the capacity to make sensory observations to feel every single emotion throughout the 32:17 runtime. There are moments where I could not stop hysterically crying, just as there were moments where I was able to literally levitate from laughter. Firstly, Dr. Eggman is played by himself and does an incredible job of acting how he would in a film of this scale. The true, UNADULTERATED ANGST, which is beamed through the theatre screen is hard to quantify, but easy to understand. The first scene of this movie is Dr. Eggman stuck inside a building for 3 years, this completely demolishes Dr. Eggman's mindset and doing this to the main character at the ONSET of the film was a very brave choice by the writers, but somehow it created a beautiful recovery arc which ultimately failed. In addition, Dr. Eggman’s wife gets fucked by almost every single other character in this movie, and every single time you can feel the shot to his heart as if it were your own. You feel his anger when he is angry and you feel it through and through. Even if Dr. Eggman gets beaten down to new lows that could never occur in a real life setting, you become Dr. Eggman. As a contrast, this film succeeds at getting you to completely forget about Dr. Eggman when he is offscreen and throws you into the utter joy and laughs of the shenanigans between the other characters. The passionate yet short love affair between Knuckles and Rouge, the powerful face offs between Shadow and Sonic, and the strange but meta-advancing presence of Amy. Every character delivers a new and interesting take on the human condition im pissing on the MOOOON, HOW DO YOU LIKE THAT OBAMA

and really breeds a solid introspection by the end of this feature.

Thirdly, the subplots of this movie are truly a marvel to be marveled at. Similar to the use of colour, this complexity ensures this film will live on as a timeless masterpiece. The entire subplot of Dr. Eggman's father not only knowing about his misshapen dick, but also DEFENDING it, was very slightly hinted at at the beginning of the film. If you look very carefully in some scenes of this feature you can see Dr Eggman's Father watching. This big reveal gives Dr. Eggman some gas in his tank to continue fighting the good fight and defend his honour against the band of furry cucks. Additionally, the development of Dr. Eggman's technology was not explicitly shown, but can be observed by the trained movie go-er. The plotline on the island with Shadow and Rouge searching for Sonic's weed was a subtle chance for Dr. Eggman to test his Pee Powered Explosives which are used in the penultimate scene of this film. These are merely a few examples of the hundreds, nay, thousands of sub-plots present over the course of the film. I would not want to ruin any more of them, but I would highly encourage watching at least 10 000 times to gain a full understanding of what is truly going on here.

Finally, this film is a DIRECT representation of what is going on in society and what has always been going on in society. Eggman's failure to escape from the building he was initially trapped in hits very hard as society has performed very similar acts to its users such as the wrong type of handle being used on a push door. Shadows angst and refusal to conform represent the Teenage and Gamer portions of society and show people currently in those categories that it's possible to grow beyond these titles and become something more. Knuckles and Amy represent love and show that without it society (the moon) will blow up and piss droplets will attack the citizens of the earth. Sonic represents the proletariat of society, they never receive what they are trying to achieve and must therefore overthrow the bourgeoisie (Eggman) to bring peace back to the galaxy. The parallels go deeper, but the most important takeaway from this cinematic masterpiece is that love is a beautiful thing, but please, dear god, do not go fucking other people's wives.

In conclusion, this film tickles every sense the human body has to offer. Taste, smell, sleepy, grouchy, hungry, sight, smell, ears, etc. It runs deep with societal parallels and recommendations, it goes HARD with acting and emotional representation, it trickles into your subconscious with the many subplots, and it delivers it all in stunning HD TECHNICOLOR. Now, do I recommend this film? For the general movie enjoyer, I would say yes. 4 yesses out of 5. Would Watch Several Additional Times.

The earth is quickly running out of natural resources and we can't replenish them. Capitalism is destroying the world and the human collective cannot change this.

A young man with glasses and a blue hoodie is smiling and holding a small bird in his hands. The bird is perched on his finger, and he is looking at it with a gentle expression. The background is slightly blurred, showing what appears to be an indoor setting with some furniture.

WHAT IS CSES?

THE CARLETON STUDENT ENGINEERING SOCIETY HAS BEEN SERVING THE STUDENTS OF CARLETON ENGINEERING FOR MORE THAN 35 YEARS.

ITS GOAL IS TO PROVIDE ITS MEMBERS WITH ACADEMIC, PROFESSIONAL, AND SOCIAL RESOURCES TO HELP THEM MAKE THE MOST OF THEIR FOUR (OR MORE) YEARS AT CARLETON. IF YOU'RE AN UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT ENROLLED IN A STREAM OF ENGINEERING, YOU'RE A MEMBER OF CSES.

Welcome back everyone and happy new year! There's a lot of cool things coming up from CSES. February Feel Good Week is coming up on February 9th - 14th, stay tuned for some wellness activities to help you destress and get ready for the winter semester! Best of luck with everything and we will hopefully see you soon!

Finance Director
Dency Amalraj

Happy New Year beautiful folks! There are some workshops, scholarships, and funding applications coming your way soon, so keep an eye out for that! Good luck with the new semester and I hope you all had a relaxing holiday season.

Hey Shawties, I'm writing this on my way to the dentist but that still can't put a damper on the new year that's kicking off! There are lots of opportunities this semester to apply for conferences. If you like leadership, sustainability or have always wanted to run for an ESCCO position, then make sure to keep your eyes peeled on the VPX portfolio!

VP Publications
Andy Curtis

Hello C-Eng! I hope that you are having a lovely break! I have been doing some fun things this break like working on the passports for Flightsuits! Don't forget that if you have any questions about the publications that are done for CSES you can always ask me at publications@cses.carleton.ca. Good luck when school commences again!

VP Social
Davis Moore

Happy New Year C-Eng! I hope you all had a relaxing holiday season. To kick this semester off I will be focusing on finding a way to distribute LAN patches so CSES can make its donation to Cornerstone Housing for Women via Charity LAN funds. Also stay tuned for announcements about our Bi-weekly events and this year's EngFrosh Reunion. CU AROUND!

Happy new year C-Eng! Hopefully you are all enjoying your much deserved time off. This month, keep your eyes out for NEM directorships, as we've got lots of them coming your way! What's NEM you ask? NEM stands for National Engineering Month and it takes place in March! Even if you haven't been involved with many extra curricular activities the past, I'd really like to encourage you to apply for a directorship — this is going to be an awesome team! For any questions regarding directorship positions, don't hesitate to reach out to me at academic@cses.carleton.ca. That's all for now, and catch you on the flippity flip!

DON'T BE A STRANGER! ANYONE INVOLVED IN CSES WOULD BE HAPPY TO TALK TO YOU ABOUT ANYTHING FROM DIRECTORSHIPS AND EVENT PLANNING TO VOLUNTEERING AT LEO'S LOUNGE, OR JUST SHOWING UP TO EVENTS. IT ALL PLAYS AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN MAKING ENGINEERING YOUR FAMILY AWAY FROM HOME. REMEMBER... EVERYTHING COUNTS FOR FLIGHTSUIT STAMPS.

JANUARY IS THE MONTH THAT YOU WILL BE ABSOLUTLY THRUST INTO A TASK (SCHOOL) THAT YOU CANNOT BRING YOURSELF TO IN YOUR CURRENT STATE (HUNGOVER™) AND MUST OVERCOME A NIGH INSURMOUNTABLE OBSTACLE (M I G R A I N) IN ORDER TO CONTINUE GOING ONWARD TOWARDS YOUR GOAL AND THE EVENTUAL END OF YOUR LIFE.

Taurus

THIS IS THE MONTH THAT YOU REALIZE THAT NO MATTER HOW MUCH STATIONARY OR STICKY NOTES YOU HAVE THAT YOU WILL NEVER BE ABLE TO TAKE NOTES IN CLASS THAT AREN'T LITTERED WITH TASTEFUL PROFANITIES OR INSTANCES OF THE "B" EMOJI. BUT THAT'S OKAY, BECAUSE YOU DIDN'T TAKE NOTES ANYWAYS :)

Gemini

IN THE MONTH ON JANUARY YOU DISCOVER ONCE AND AGAIN THAT GOD IS CRUEL AND UNCARING AS YOU SLOWLY AND PAINFULLY REALIZE THAT IN 2020 GOD MAY HAVE LEFT YOU READ BUT IN 2021 GOD HAS LEFT YOU IN A METAPHORICAL HOT CAR AS YOU NOT ONLY HAVE UNPAID BILLS BUT ALSO FESTERING VEGETABLES DEEP IN THE DEPTHS OF YOUR FRIDGE. THE TONE HAS BEEN SET.

Cancer

IT IS IN THIS MONTH THAT YOU DISCOVER ONCE AND FOR ALL THAT PRESSING THE POWER BUTTON WHEN PROMPTED TO 'PRESS ANY BUTTON' ON THE GAME START SCREEN DOESN'T WORK WHATSOEVER.... I GUESS YOU DIDN'T NEED ALL 500 OF THOSE INCOGNITO TABS OPEN.

Leo

WITH THE NEW YEAR COMES NEW THINGS. THIS YEAR THAT MEANS NEW FORMS OF SUFFERING, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO: RUNNING OUT OF CIGGIES AT AN IMPORTUNE TIME, THE EMAIL FINDING YOU SICK AND FESTERING AND THE FIRE ALARM GOING OFF WHILE COOKING AND THEN GOING OFF AGAIN AFTER YOU FINISH COOKING TO LET YOU KNOW THAT IT IS OUT OF BATTERY. HOWEVER, YOU WILL OVERCOME.

Virgo

IN JANUARY YOU WILL EXPERIENCE PEAK RUST BEHAVIOUR AS ONE OF YOUR CLASSES PUTS UP OVER A DOZEN FUCKIN ASSIGNMENTS FOR THE CLASS BEFORE THE SEMSETER EVEN STARTS. IT IS THEN THAT YOU REALIZE THAT THEY WERE ALL DUE BEFORE FUCKING WINTER BREAK AND THAT IT IS TIME TO RUN UP ON GOD WITH BLADDER FULL OF PISS.

Libra

THIS IS THE MONTH THAT YOU LEARN WHAT NO TERM GRADES DO TO A MF.

Scorpio

IT IS IN THE BEGINNING OF THIS PERILOUS SEMESTER THAT YOU REALIZE SCHOOL IS TEN TRILLION PERCENT ON SOME BULL. BUT IT IS OKAY BECAUSE YOU HAVE C H E E S E AND CHEESE WILL ALWAYS BE THERE FOR YOU. CHEESE DOES NOT JUDGE YOU OR TELL YOU THAT THEY STARTED THE ASSIGNMENT ALREADY WHEN WHAT YOU REALLY WANTED TO HEAR WAS THAT IT HAD NOT YET STARTED THE ASSIGNMENT. CHEESE IS A REAL ONE.

Sagittarius

THIS THE MONTH YOU GO ALL OUT JUST THIS ONCE AND FINALLY DRINK THE LAVA LAMP JUICE TO SEE IF IT WILL GIVE YOU THE MAGICAL POWERS LIKE YOU ALWAYS HOPED AND IT ACTUALLY FUCKING WORKS? JKJK BY MAGICAL POWERS I MEAN H O S P I T A L. YOU BETTER NOT DRINK THE FUCKIN LAVA LAMP JUICE YOU WANKER, CABBAGE HEAD MF.

Capricorn

THIS IS THE JANUARY THAT YOU REALIZE THAT WHILE THE SUN MAY ONLY BE UP LESS THAN 10 HOURS PER DAY YOU MANAGE TO STAY UP EVEN LESS THAN THAT. BUT THAT IS A-OK BECAUSE IT IS THE TIME OF THE SEASON TO SLEEP LIKE AN ANIMAL AND ALSO TO EAT LIKE A GOD. THIS MEANS EXTRA LARGE MILANO'S PIZZAS SO ITS TIME TO START PLAYING THE SONG: HTTPS://WWW.YOUTUBE.COM/WATCH?V=G U Q H - 6 W E Y R 2 M

Aquarius

THIS IS THE MONTH THAT YOU REMEMBER HOW TO FORGET TO REMEMBER HOW TO STUDY AND MUST RELEARN IT AGAIN AS YOU HAVE EVERY SEMESTER FOR AS LONG AS YOU HAVE REMEMBERED TO HAVE FORGOT TO REMEMBER. FEAR NOT THOUGH, FOR YOU HAVE THE HOMIES TO CARRY YOU ONWARD TO VICTORY. WHETHER THIS MEANS DRAGGING YOU BY YOUR ANKLES CRYING AND SCREAMING OR ON A STRETCHER AS A CHAMPION IS YET TO BE DETERMINED, ONLY YOU CAN CHOOSE YOUR FATE.

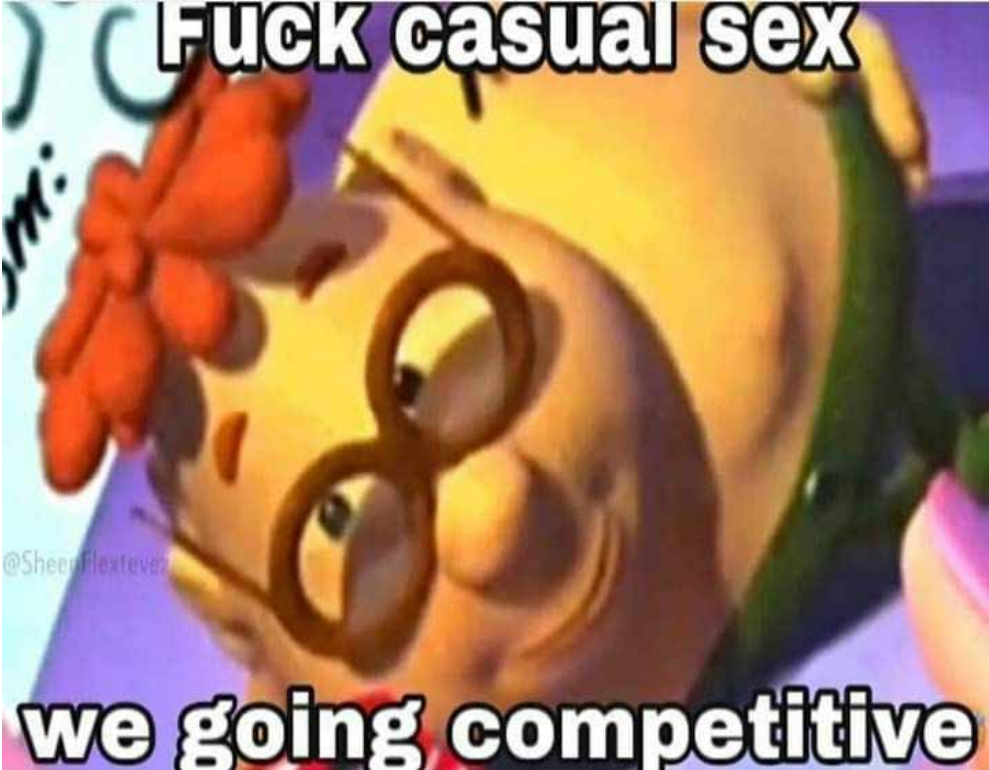

Pisces

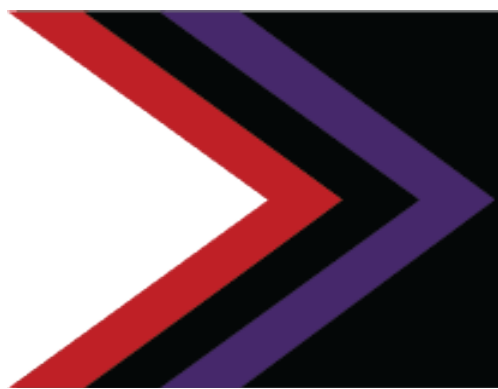

THIS MONTH YOU WILL REALIZE THAT ZIP TIES ARE IN FACT PRETTY FUCKIN COOL ESPECIALY THE ONES THAT ARE FUCKIN REUSABLE MOTHERFUCKER THAT'S FUCKIN AWESOME. AND GUESS WHAT? THIS IS ALSO THE MONTH THAT YOU REALIZE THEY CAN BE 3D PRINTED WHICH MEANS THAT YOU CAN MAKE ZIPTIES WITH ARBITARY DIMENTIONS WHICH IS REALLY COOL BUT YOU BETTER MAKE THEM OUT OF BIODEGRADABLE FILAMENT LEST YOU CURSE THE EARTH EVEN MORE THAN EVERY COMPANY YOU KNOW AND HATE ALREADY IS AND CONTINUES TO DO.
